Insanity in Washington

Last October, I made the following statement:

“If you vote Democrat, live for today because tomorrow is filled with debt and danger. No kidding!”

Now look!

The Democrats are trying to pull another April Fool in Christmas—slip another few trillion dollars past the American people, even though the election in November 2010 made it clear that we have had enough of that. And enough wealth redistribution! And enough false egalitarianism! We want Americans to work for a living and have jobs. We want our representatives in Congress to be responsive to us and be accountable.

The Democrats are exhibiting insanity in their spending and bills that threaten American security. Arrogance, peevishness, failed ideology and downright spite add up to political insanity.

A trillion dollar omnibus budget by a Lame Duck Congress? With 6,000 ear marks?

A 600 billion dollar “deal” that extends the Bush tax cuts but also increases spending by adding on a 1 year extension of unemployment benefits?

A repeal of “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell”? If common sense, discipline and combat effectiveness don’t float your boat on this subject, wait until you see the bill!! Benefits for “partners”, extra facilities, more lawsuits, and the list goes on.

I’VE HAD ENOUGH. ANY THOUGHTS I’VE HAD PREVIOUSLY ABOUT “WORKING IT OUT” ARE OVER.

NOW IT’S THROW THEM OUT!

I’M MAD. VERY MAD!

What worries me is whether or not we will be able to fix our government so that it functions in a sane and fair way and maintains the integrity and security of our nation.

Consider the following:

Democracy is the art and science of running the circus from the monkey cage.

H. L. Mencken

Our form of democracy is bribery, on the highest scale.

Gore Vidal

American democracy must be a failure because it places the supreme authority in the hands of the poorest and most ignorant part of the society.

Thomas Babington

The one pervading evil of democracy is the tyranny of the majority, or rather of that party, not always the majority, that succeeds, by force or fraud, in carrying elections.

Lord Acton

The best argument against democracy is a five-minute conversation with the average voter.

Winston Churchill

Without God, democracy will not and cannot long endure.

Ronald Reagan

The ignorance of one voter in a democracy impairs the security of all.

John F. Kennedy

Democracy is when the indigent, and not the men of property, are the rulers.

Aristotle

In a democracy the poor will have more power than the rich, because there are more of them, and the will of the majority is supreme.

Aristotle

On account of being a democracy and run by the people, we are the only nation in the world that has to keep a government four years, no matter what it does.

Will Rogers

Democracy... while it lasts is more bloody than either aristocracy or monarchy. Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There is never a democracy that did not commit suicide.

John Adams

I confess I enjoy democracy immensely. It is incomparably idiotic, and hence incomparably amusing.

H. L. Mencken

The problem with a democracy, or even a representative republic (which is what the U.S. is intended to be) is that the electorate eventually figure out that they can vote to have the government give them everything.

And...those elected will give them whatever they want so as to maintain their position of power—even if it leads to bankruptcy and insecurity.

WE ARE SEEING IT. WE HAVE TO STOP IT!

TELL YOUR CONGRESSMAN AND SENATOR THAT YOU MEANT WHAT YOU SAID
IN THE LAST ELECTION!!
